Awareness

All PLAN Australia staff who deal with (or are likely to deal with) customers, are aware of the names, titles and telephone numbers of our Complaints Officer and Deputy Complaints Officer.

Each staff member is also instructed in how to transfer a customer who has a complaint to our Complaints Officer or Deputy Complaints Officer; and what customer details to record if the Complaints Officer and Deputy Complaints Officer are for any reason unavailable (this information will include a minimum of the name, telephone number, and description of the product or transaction to which the complaint relates). PLAN Australia does not charge a fee in respect to any complaint.

Timelines for resolving your complaint

We will provide a written acknowledgement of receipt of your complaint as soon as possible, unless the complaint is otherwise resolved in the meantime.

We will ensure that a final response is given to your complaint as soon as possible, but within twenty one (21), thirty (30) or forty five (45) days of receipt of your complaint. See below for further information on time frames.

If PLAN Australia or BLSSA is unable to deal with the complaint as it relates to a third party (for example, a lender), we may ask you to contact the relevant third party.

For certain types of complaints, involving “default notices” or urgent disputes such as “applications for hardship”, a final response must be provided within twenty one (21) days.

For privacy complaints, we are required to give you a final response within thirty (30) days.

Final responses to complaints not involving financial hardship or privacy issues should be received by you within forty five (45) days.

If we cannot respond to your complaint within the relevant timeframes, PLAN Australia will inform you of the reasons for the delay and of your right to refer the complaint to your EDR or, in the case of privacy complaints, to the Australian Information Commissioner.

We will provide a final response to you if we:

- (a) Accept the complaint and, if appropriate, offer redress, or
- (b) Offer redress without accepting the complaint; or
- (c) Reject the complaint.

If you make a complaint directly to your finance broker they will provide you with their expected response time frames.

Written Response to Your Complaint

We will give you a written response to your complaint and the reasons for reaching a particular decision on the complaint. We will adequately address the issues that are raised in the complaint.

We will inform you of the contact particulars of our EDR Scheme and, for privacy complaints, the Australian Information Commissioner if you are not satisfied with the outcome of our investigating the complaint.

Remedies

If we accept the complaint and are of the view that it is appropriate to offer redress to you, that redress may be non-financial as well as, or instead of, financial. If we consider that a financial remedy is appropriate then we will provide compensation for any direct loss or damage caused.

We will, when determining an appropriate remedy, take into consideration the extent of loss or damage suffered by you, relevant legal principles, EDR Scheme Rules, the MFAA Code of Practice and other relevant codes of conduct and concepts of fairness and relevant industry best practice.

Data Collection

We will keep data concerning the complaint in such form and manner as we think fit and will enable analysis according to:

- a. Type of complaint;
- b. Subject of complaint;
- c. Outcome of complaint;
- d. Timeliness of response;

So that we can identify any systematically recurring problems, we will classify complaints accordingly.

Subject to legal constraints including our privacy obligations, we may make available data collected in respect of the complaint upon request to the EDR Scheme, of which we are a member, and the Australian Securities and Investments Commission.

Review

We will review our Dispute Resolution Procedures at least every three (3) years to ensure that our complaints systems are operating effectively. This policy adheres to RG165 which is ASIC's guide to internal and external dispute resolutions.
